

If my membership application is approved and I become a member of The Earth Center I must understand and uphold the following policies and procedures:

I. The Earth Center is an organization based on respect of human dignity regardless of race, gender, age, religion, socioeconomic status, philosophical or political belief.

II. All Earth Center materials contained may not be reproduced, republished, distributed, transmitted, displayed, broadcasted or otherwise exploited in any manner without the express prior permission of The Earth Center.

III. All Earth Center tasks, projects and the like conducted by members must be approved by authorized Earth Center initiates/leadership.

IV. For the purposes of protecting the privacy of certain information belonging to or about The Earth Center, I agree not to disclose confidential information unless authorized to do so.